One thing I've always loved, and always will, is making dinner for others. It's why I started cooking and why I still love it so much. There's nothing better than making a meal you know someone is going to enjoy. Whether it's family or friends, dinner is such a special time to come together at the end of the day. No phones, no computers—just good people and really good food.

Of course, it doesn't always look like that every night. Like so many of you, my schedule can get busy too. The recipes I fall back on are always the easiest. Things like ground beef tacos, rice bowls, stir-fry-style dinners, and of course, pizza and pasta.

And while I love making dinner, I know it can sometimes feel like the hardest part of the day. Especially when you want something that's easy, but still really good. These are the kinds of recipes I come back to again and again. Simple enough for busy weeknights, but still special enough to look forward to.

Whether you’re cooking for family, friends, or just need something quick after a long day, there’s a little bit of everything here.

If you’re in a dinner rut or just need a little fresh inspiration, these are a great place to start!

I think there’s something off with the searching function on this site. It seems like it only shows recipes with the word in the title. For example, if I search for bitters, which I know are in a bunch of your drink recipes, it tells me there are 0 results. As another example, if I search the phrase ‘lemon juice’ I once again get 0 results & have to narrow it down to just the word lemon. It’s pretty frustrating because it makes finding certain recipes way more of a pain than it should be, & I imagine it's detrimental to people coming to see what the site has to offer, since they might not be able to find what they're looking for & leave again even though there are so many different kinds of recipes here...

Hi Amanda,

Thanks for pointing this out and I am so sorry you are having this experience. I just tested myself, using the key word “bitters”, and multiple recipes appeared.

<https://www.halfbakedharvest.com/recipes/#search/q=bitters>

Maybe try again and see if that works for you! I hope this helps!
